In Reedsburg: Sat., Oct. 18, 12-1 pm, Reedsburg Community Marketplace Shelter, 115 N. Webb Avenue

Hello friends,

Fall is around the corner and three exciting programs are coming up. The details are here and I am hoping you'll want to join in. For a quick look at the flyers, scroll to the bottom of this email.

1. *Gradually, step by step...

On Sundays September 21 and 28. Miguel Rivera from Madison will lead two special sessions designed to promote peace and racial unity. With ease we will find common ground and break down the barriers to living in unity.

During his 30 year career at ExxonMobil, Miguel Rivera held a variety of supervisory/managerial positions within R & D, Sales & Marketing, Manufacturing, and Supply Chain, ultimately leading global process improvement teams across the Americas, Europe and Asia Pacific.

His experience led to a passionate appreciation of the value of a diverse and inclusive culture, both individually and corporately. Today, Miguel continues to pursue his passion for racial justice as an activist.

The format for the sessions offered on 9/21 and 9/28, is designed to promote peace and unity amongst all peoples, across races in a gentle, non-threatening approach. It may include speakers, listening to talks, and small group discussions.

Sundays, September 21 & 28

8:30 am - 10:00 am

First Congregational United Church of Christ, corner of 6th & Broadway.

1. *Riders for Race Amity (friendship)

During the summer, high schoolers rode bicycles from Madison to Montgomery AL, stopping in 10 cities to promote social justice and inter-racial friendship. They return to Baraboo to share their experience. Don't miss this student led discussion.

Monday, September 29,

5:00 pm -7:00 pm

Carnegie Schadde Memorial Public Library, Baraboo

1. A Fall Book Discussion Group:

Healing the Heart of Democracy by Parker Palmer

Though published in 2011, its wisdom and answers to the demolition and dilemmas of Democracy point to a path forward.

“This is an inspiring book, one that should be read and talked about in every family, book club, classroom, boardroom, congregation, and hall of government in our country. Parker J Palmer writes with clarity, good sense, balance, honesty, humor and humility, focusing on the essence of what is needed from each of us for the survival of our democracy.”

Thomas F Beech, president emeritus, The Fetzer Institute.

Ten copies of the book are available through our South Central (Public) Library System for participants and can be picked up on September 28 or after at First Congregational.

Discussion on October 12 will draw from the prelude, Chapters I and II

October 19: Chapters III and IV

October 26: Chapters V and VI

November 2: Chapters VII and VIII

If you're interested, please join us, whether you've read the chapters or not.

October 12, 19, 26 and November 2, as 9:00am - 10:00 am.

First Congregational United Church of Christ, corner of 6th & Broadway, Baraboo.

All are welcome to each event/program; please share this email widely with family, friends, co-workers and neighbors.

STEP, WE CHANGE.”

“...If you are asleep, wake up! If you are awake, do not lie down, sit up! If you are seated, stand up! If you are standing, march! If you are marching, run!” This is a process that God wants us to follow. He does not say: if you are asleep, run! Gradually, step by step, we change.” - Abdu'l-Bahá
